FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

6/10/05

RISK OF INJURY TO MINOR ARREST

Today 06/10/05 at approximately 1:35 p.m. State Police Troop-I and the Beacon Falls Resident Troopers Office were notified that a very young child who seemed to be lost was walking on a rural portion of Blackberry Hill Rd in Beacon Falls near the wood line.

The Resident Trooper and Town Officers responded to the Blackberry Hill area to search for the child. Officer Lenny Rubbo of Beacon Falls Resident State Troopers Office found the child and his dog about 200 yards from his home, in a thick wooded area off Blackberry Hill Rd. The area was rural with ponds and streams in the vicinity. The dog was able to lead the Trooper and Officer back to the child's residence.

Troopers returned the child to his home 160 Blackberry Hill Rd. At the residence Troopers located the mother of the child who appeared to be intoxicated and sleeping in the residence. The mother was placed under arrest and taken into custody. She was transported to Troop-I Bethany. Dept of Children and Families was notified and did respond to determine custody of the child.

ACCUSED: GUTIERRO, Tanya DOB: 3/5/70
160 Blackberry Hill Road
Beacon Falls, CT.

CHARGE: Risk of Injury to a minor

The accused was processed and released on $500 bond. The accused will appear at GA # 5 in Derby on 6/20/05.
